Mrs. Peter Brier, of Hickory street, returned home yesterday from a three weeks visit in Elmira. Forty hours devotion was concluded yesterday morning at St. John's church, with a solemn high mass at 8 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Mulderig returned home yesterday from their bridal tour, and are receiving the congratulations of friends. Miss Bridget Gallagher, of Hazleton, after a week's stay as the guest of Mr. and Mrs, John Haggerty, of Pittston aveue, left for home yesterday.

The sale of tickets for the ball of the Neptune Engine company is so large that Germania hall will do well to contain the crowd on the night of Oct. 23. A solid sheet of water flowed for hours yesterday down River street to Cedar ave-nue and kept the latter thoroughfare sub-merged beyond the street railway switch. The James G. Bailey Democratic club of the Nineteenth ward has elected the following officers: President, Michael Mc-Guire; secretary, Anthony Rogan; treasurer, Frank Manley. Thomas J. Moore, of the Meadow Brook store, has been chosen to represent the di-rectors of the Scranton Axle works at the meeting of the United Association of Axle Manufacturers in New York city, Oct. 26. Lizzie, the S-year-old daughter of Peter Dippre, of Hickory street, died Tuesday and was buried yesterday moraing. Barial services were held at St. Mary's German Catholic church and interment was made in the Twentieth Ward cemetery.

Pittston avenue, between Genet and Fig streets, is a sea of mud, and a half a block of it near Pear street is filled with washuts from the stream that comes down Senet street, supplied from a huge leak in ne of the mains in the Scranton Gas and Vater company.

The fire alarm sounded from Box 75 reservance of the discovery of fire in the double dwelling of Edward L. Benjamin, on North Main avenus, between Parker and Dean streets. The building is occupied by Charles Knapp and Mrs. Ann Lowry, in whose part the fire originated. Mrs. Lowry's son is employed on the railroad, so had to so to work rather early. After prepargo to work rather early. After prepar-ing the breakfast for her brother in the basement, the daughter went back to bed, which was on the second floor, and in a very few minutes the place was com-pletely filled with smoke. Neighbors also alarm, which was promptly responded to by the Liberty and Nisgara Hose companies, who did good work in saving the greater part of the building, although the rear will have to be rebuilt. The damage on the building will amount to at least $500, but is fully covered by insurance. Mrs. Lowry's furniture, which was in the rear portion of the building, was destroyed. The loss of Mr. Knapp is but slight, but neither carried any insurance. The origin of the fire is a mystery, as the chimney was found in good condition.

DUNMORE.

Samuel Glencross is building a new house Irwin Secore's new house on Main street,

Miss Mattie Chamberlin is spending a few days on Binghamton. John J. Phillips' new house on Adams wenue, is nearly completed. Albert Conrad has resumed work on his new house on Throop street. J. G. Bone and G. W. B. Allen have returned from their trip to Binghamton. The streets in different parts of the borough were badly washed out by the neavy rain yesterday. Miss Minnie Carr, of Black Walnut, Wyoming county, is visiting her grand-parents on Drinker street.

The borough councilmen should look after Chestnut street and provide some way to carry off the water. Residents have their yards flooded after every heavy rain. A washout on the Delaware, Luckawanna and Western railroad near Bunker Hill, delayed traffic for several hours. Trains were also delayed on the Eric and Wyoming Valley railroad by the heavy rainfail.

The Kickspoo Indian Medicine company gave an interesting free exhibition in Odd-fellows hall last evening. The hall was filled with men. This evening the ladies especially are invited. Saturday afternoon the Kickapoos will give a matinee for

He Will Tell the Story of His Life Tonight.

The evangelistic meetings in the Green Ridge Evangelical shurch, on Capouse avenue, conducted by the blind evangelist, J. H. Maios, of Wash-tives in town.

ington, D. C., are already attracting no small attention. The meetings thus far have been well attended and are deeply spiritual n character. This evening the service will be especially for men. The evangelist hav-ing been for a number of years a detec-tive has an experience and has acquired a knowledge of human nature that since his consecration fits him for the work in which he is now engaged. The subject of his address this evening will be "The Story of My Life."

At the Theaters.

Tonight that extremely funny comedy, "Charley's Aunt," will begiven at the Academy of Music by a good company. "Charley's Aunt" is not like a great many of the comedies which have been imported from the other side, and it particularly differs in that it is not dependent on vul garity for its humor or success.

DeMille and Beiasco's great play, "Men and Women," will be seen at the Academy of Music tomorrow night. The story of Jean Valjean, rightly considered as one of the strongest and most pathetic told by that great master of pathos, Victor Hugo, is effectively echoed in DeMille and Belasco's play, "Men and Women," by Stephen Rodman. It is another strong sermon against the danger of the first step in non against the danger of the first step in mancial looseness, and helps to make 'Men and Women" the most effective son against speculation ever put upor

Saturday afternoon and evening that screaming comedy "Jane" will be given at the Frothingham. One of the features is the departure from the convential interio scenes of most light farces, to a very daint and refreshing garden scene. The play abounds in fun, fast and furious and ye is more refined in tone and sincerity and iundoubtedly superior to any of the light comedies of French origin,

"The Power of the Press," the play which so many laughed and cried over last season, will be at the Academy of Music Monday night. The good impression made by this play on its first appearance here, has secured already a large advance sale of onte for the company. seats for the coming engagement. Mr. Pitou has magnificently mounted his play -every act is rich in scenery and effects, but they are kept in their proper place and are not made an excuse for poor actng. The actors are capable and pains aking the acts are well balanced, and altogether it is a superb production, worthy of the enthusiastic greeting given it everywhere.

Lovers of comedy drama will be afforded a special treat at Davis' Theatre during the latter-half of the week, commenting the latter-nail of the week, commencing this afternoon, when the celebrated Irish comedy entitled "Irish Loyalty" will be placed upon the boards, "Philip O'Connor" will be represented by Ralph E. Cummings, whose well-known name will at once guarantee that the leading part is in excellent hands. Miss Light Light a first-class artist will take Lisle Leigh, a first-class artist, will take the part of "Mary O'Counor," and her brilliant acting is undisputed. "Irish Loyalty" will draw a large house and is leservedly popular.
